The Product as designed by NVIDIA, manufactured at an NVIDIA Contract Electronic Manufacturer and sold directly by NVIDIA will meet the requirements of all Environmental Laws, Directives and Adopted Industry Standards that apply to the Electrical and Electronics Industry and are outlined in the MECS0001 (Manufacturer Environmental Compliance Specification).

☒ This product contains parts which use RoHS Annex Exemption(s)

☒ Halogen Free

☐ EC Waiver for R&D Business to Business Product

☐ Halogen Free Waiver

The Environmental Compliance Certification covers the following as outlined in the MECS0001:

RoHS	EU-ROHS 2011/65/EU
Halogen Free, PVC Free	"Low Halogen" compliance as defined by JS-709
REACH	Environmental Compliance with the European Registration, Evaluation, Authorization and restriction of Chemicals (EC/1907/2006)
POP	EU Commission Regulation 757/2010 for Persistent Organic Pollutants (POP)
JCSCL	Japan Chemical Substance Control Law
RSIB	Restriction of Substances in Batteries
RSIP	Restriction of Substances in Packaging

The MECS is enforced with each component manufacturer. Any deviation or part substitution from the original component listing within the Bill of Materials as released by NVIDIA by second or third party assemblers will void this certification.

REACH Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC)

European Union Regulation (EC/1907/2006) the Registration, Evaluation, and Authorization of Chemicals (REACH), Annex XIV, addresses Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC). This NVIDIA Compliance Certification applies to all substances that are included in the EU REACH's latest list of SVHCs published on the European Chemical Agency's (ECHA's) website at: http://echa.europa.eu/candidate-list-table

At this time and to the best of our knowledge, none of the NVIDIA Products contain any REACH SVHCs above the 0.1% w/w (i.e., 1000 ppm) reporting threshold. This was determined through a careful investigation of our products by requesting and reviewing information from our suppliers on the raw materials used in the manufacturing of our product. NVIDIA continues to actively monitor the EU's REACH regulations and to require our Suppliers to ensure they do not use any existing or newly listed REACH SVHCs in our products above the 1000 ppm reporting threshold.
